

Worship Service: PEACE

Welcome: Welcome! It's so good to be together to celebrate faith and community today. My name is _____ and I'll be leading our worship time today. Our theme today is Peace. What do you think of when you think about peace?

As I see it there are two sides to peace: peace with other people; and inner peace, or contentment with oneself. We'll talk more today about peace and how it relates to a life of faith. Please pray with me as we open our time together.

Opening Prayer: Great and loving God, we ask that your Holy Spirit bless our time together and to refresh us with your presence. In the midst of a world full of trouble and strife, we thank you for watching over us, guiding us, and especially forgiving us. Enable us to enter your presence joyfully and reverently, and let us depart today with the assurance that our sins are forgiven. Fill us, O God, with the peace which passes understanding. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Doxology, p. 1

Statement of Faith: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting Psalm 23 together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

First reading: Isaiah 52:7-10

How beautiful upon the mountains
are the feet of him who brings good news,
who announces peace, who brings good news of happiness,
who proclaims salvation,
who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.”

⁸The voice of your watchmen—they lift up their voice;
together they sing for joy;
for eye to eye they see the return of the Lord to Zion.

⁹Break forth together into singing,
you waste places of Jerusalem,
for the Lord has comforted his people;
he has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰The Lord has bared his holy arm
before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see
the salvation of our God.

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Hymns:

Holy, Holy, Holy, p. 5

Jesus Loves Me, p. 6

Second reading: Philippians 4:4-9

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. ⁵Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; ⁶do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Interactive Homily: Let's talk more about peace.

- What does it mean to be at peace with other people? What do we need to do to be at peace with others?
 - Respect, listening, care, love, tolerance, compassion, slow to anger
- In the scripture reading, Paul encourages the Philippians to think about a few things. What is one thing in the world that you consider... [ask people to name one thing for each of these; or pick just a few]:
 - True
 - Honorable or Noble
 - Just or Right
 - Pure
 - Lovely
 - Commendable or Admirable
 - Excellent
 - Worthy of Praise
- How does thinking about these things lead to peace?
 - Your mind and heart become practiced in the way of peace, identifying it and encouraging it; God's own heart!
- What does it mean to be at peace with yourself?

... Let's take a moment to silently pray and reflect on God's gift of peace.

(Silent Prayer) ... Lord, in your love and mercy, hear our prayers. Now let us say the Lord's prayer together:

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Third Reading: "The Peace of Wild Things," by Wendell Barry

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake
rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things
who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

Fourth Reading: Quotes on Peace

The day the power of love overrules the love of power, the world will know peace. —Mahatma Gandhi

World peace must develop from inner peace. Peace is not just mere absence of violence. Peace is, I think, the manifestation of human compassion. —Dalai Lama XIV

I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word. —Martin Luther King, Jr.

Those who are free of resentful thoughts surely find peace. —Buddha

Never be in a hurry; do everything quietly and in a calm spirit. Do not lose your inner peace for anything whatsoever, even if your whole world seems upset. —
Saint Francis de Sales (Swiss clergyman, 1567-1622)
