

Worship Service Theme: Discovery

Helpful elements:

Green table covering (Ordinary Time)

Welcome: Welcome! It's so good to be together to celebrate faith and community today. My name is ____ and I'll be leading our worship time today. This week we're looking at the theme of discovery.

Let's look at the word itself: dis + cover, or "to uncover, to find." That's where the intersection with faith happens: through God's Spirit, we continually discover new things about God, ourselves, and the world around us.

Please pray with me as we open our time together.

Opening Prayer: Great and loving God, we ask your Holy Spirit to bless our time together and to refresh us with your presence. In the midst of a world full of trouble and strife, we thank you for watching over us, guiding us, and as we confess our sins, for forgiving us. Enable us to enter your presence joyfully and reverently, and let us depart today with the assurance that our sins are forgiven. Fill us, O God, with the peace which passes understanding. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Doxology

Statement of Faith: Let us affirm our statement of faith by reciting Psalm 23, "The Lord is my shepherd," together:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

<sup>2</sup>He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

<sup>3</sup>He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

<sup>4</sup>Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup>Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

<sup>6</sup>Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

First reading: A Brief History of Discovery<sup>1</sup>

This week is the anniversary of Christopher Columbus' arrival on the American Continent on October 12, 1492. The landing is celebrated as Columbus Day in the United States; and because Columbus was Italian, many Italian-Americans observe Columbus Day as a celebration of their heritage.

But some things have changed as we "rediscover" the truth about our nation's beginnings. Because Columbus didn't actually discover America, did he? Who was here first? The Native Americans! There were already civilized people inhabiting this land.

To acknowledge this, several U.S. states and cities, including South Dakota, Vermont, Phoenix, and Denver, have replaced Columbus Day with Indigenous Peoples Day. In Latin America, the day is recognized as Día de las Culturas (Day of Cultures), Día de las Américas (Day of the Americas), and Día del Respeto a la Diversidad Cultural (Day of Respect for Cultural Diversity).

In 1992, the National Council of Churches said this about the start of colonization in America: "What represented newness of freedom for some was the occasion for oppression for others." In 2023, the Catholic Church formally repudiated the Doctrine of Discovery, a series of 15th-century proclamations that legitimized colonial exploitation.<sup>2</sup> Something to think about!

<sup>44</sup> Jesus said, “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. <sup>45</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls,<sup>46</sup> who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.”

This is the word of the Lord; thanks be to God.

Interactive Homily: Let’s talk more about discovery.

- What types of things have you looked for in your life?
  - Lost child, lost valuable item; looking for a job, looking for a home
- What is it like when you’re looking for something? What do you feel?
  - Urgency, hope, fear, longing, adventure
- What about when you’re not looking for something and you find it? Like finding money on the ground or a book you’ve been wanting to read? How could that make you feel?
  - Excited, surprised, happy, grateful
- Now turning to our spiritual lives: How did you find God, or how did God find you?
  - Some people grew up in the church, taught by parents or grandparents or teachers.
  - Some people find God at “tent meetings” or revivals.
  - Sometimes young, sometimes old ... any age!
  - You can find God by talking to people, reading, nature ...
- Jesus talks about the kingdom of God as a treasure hidden in a field – found by someone who is not even looking for it! Or as a pearl of great value – a merchant is looking and finally finds the perfect pearl. What’s the same in both stories? What’s the same about a treasure and a magnificent pearl?
  - The VALUE of what is found.
  - The REACTION: Both people in both stories sell everything else they have to get the treasure or pearl.

- In both examples, Jesus says that the kingdom of heaven, a relationship with God, is worth more than anything else, worth more than anything you could give up to get it.
- And this relationship with God, something of priceless value, continues! God's Spirit calls us to discover God throughout our lives ... and also to discover ourselves and our world. Consider these interesting "discovery" questions for today:<sup>3</sup>
  - Why do you think you are here? (list as many ideas as possible)
    - "If you are alive, you are here for a purpose."
  - What have you enjoyed learning? What do you still enjoy learning? (list as many ideas as possible)
    - "Life is a learning journey. The more we learn, the more we grow ... and the richer and deeper our life experience."
  - What brings you joy? (list as many ideas as possible)
    - "Often it is the simple things that bring us the most joy. Begin incorporating those things into your life on a daily basis."

Let's take a moment to silently pray and reflect on God's gift of discovery, and to ask for God to show us new truths every day.

(Silent Prayer) ... Lord, hear our prayers. Now let us pray the Lord's prayer together:

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Some people, in order to discover God, read books. But there is a great book: the very appearance of created things. Look above you! Look below you! Read it. God, whom you want to discover, never wrote that book with ink. Instead, God set before your eyes the things that He has made. Can you ask for a louder voice than that? –St. Augustine, 4th-century North African philosopher and bishop

The first step toward finding God, who is Truth, is to discover the truth about myself: and if I have been in error, this first step to truth is the discovery of my error. –Thomas Merton, American writer and Trappist monk

Sixty years ago, I knew everything; now I know nothing. Education is a progressive discovery of our own ignorance. –author and historian Will Durant

The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. –Indian lawyer and anticolonial activist Mahatma Gandhi

The only real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes but in having new eyes. – French novelist Marcel Proust

The way to find a needle in a haystack is to sit down. –Beryl Markham, English-born Kenyan aviator and author
